Hello Kate,

Chief Moore is not available today. If you circle back tomorrow, we can check again, but the fires are all consuming at this time.

Thank you,
Trish

Hey Josh and Trish,

Know it's a busy day with the fires, but my editors have asked me to try and talk to the LAPD about a new crime study that came out this week (link below) that found crime increases in L.A., despite decreases statewide. Would Chief Moore have 5-10 minutes today for a quick phone interview about it? I was planning to ask Chief Beck today at Commission, but since he's not here, think Moore might be the best point person.

Please let me know. Thanks!
